

Autism 200 Series

Autism 209: Multicultural Issues and Autism

Please join us for a panel facilitated by Joe Gobunquin, Family Services Program Manager at Open Doors for Multicultural Families.

Thursday, September 15, 2016

7:00pm - 8:30pm

Seattle Children's Hospital - Wright Auditorium

Panelists will include parents and staff from Open Doors for Multicultural Families and the Arc of King County who represent a broad culturally and linguistically diverse population.

Discussion will include barriers that families from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds commonly face and information for providers when working with individuals and families living with autism from these communities.
